

2020 Champions for Better Health Awards

Purpose

The Partnership for Better Health's 2020 Champions for Better Health Awards recognize distinguished community volunteers, health care providers, business leaders, philanthropists, collaborations and youth whose work plays a vital role in advancing the health and wellness of our region. Community members are invited to nominate local health champions whose work and service makes our community a healthy place for everyone to live, learn, work and play.

Date of Event & Location

Date: Wednesday, May 27, 2020
5 pm – 7 pm

Location: Social Hall, Holland Union Building, Dickinson College

Requirements to be Nominated

Focus Area: The work or service of successful nominees will demonstrate a substantial commitment to addressing health equity by ensuring that all people have the chance to enjoy healthy lives. Nominees should advance at least one of the following goals:

1. Build healthy communities by supporting decisions, conditions and systems that enable people to live healthier lives in their schools, workplaces, homes and neighborhoods.
2. Ensure equitable access to medical, dental and/or behavioral health services.
3. Strengthen the health capacities of organizations and groups to collaborate and engage in strategies to improve health.

Region: All applicants must work or serve the Partnership for Better Health's geographic region, which includes Central and Western Cumberland County, all of Perry County, Northern Adams County and Greater Shippensburg. Click here for a map of our service area.

Recognition Categories

Volunteer of the Year – honors an individual or family who demonstrates exceptional leadership skills in their volunteer activities and plays a major role in advancing the health and wellness of our region. Nominees will be reviewed using the following criteria:

- Evidence of quality leadership and organizational abilities.
- Time, effort, and personal commitment to volunteerism that advances health, especially among vulnerable populations.
- Demonstrated ability to recruit and motivate others in their commitment to volunteerism.

Professional of the Year – honors outstanding health professionals or other individuals who have played a vital role in advancing the health and wellness of our region. Examples include but are not limited to physicians, clinicians, teachers, nonprofit/community leaders and elected officials. Nominees will be evaluated using the following criteria:

- Evidence of career achievements, length and tenure of commitment to health issues.
- Experience, leadership, creativity and involvement in advancing the health and wellness of our region.
- A commitment to improving the lives of people whose life circumstances make them vulnerable to poor health.
- Demonstrated commitment to continuing professional development and growth (e.g., membership in professional organizations and/or volunteer service)

Philanthropist of the Year – honors an individual, family or private foundation with a proven record of exceptional generosity who, through direct financial support, demonstrates outstanding civic and charitable engagement that advances the health and wellness of our region. Nominees will be evaluated using the following criteria:

- Evidence of community giving that has a direct impact on the health of our community.
- Encouragement and motivation of others to play leadership roles in philanthropy.
- Philanthropic support of innovative approaches to challenging community health issues.
- A commitment to addressing the needs of under-served populations through philanthropy.

Nonprofit of the Year – honors a nonprofit organization or governmental agency that, through encouragement and motivation of others, takes a leadership role in advancing the health and wellness of our region. Nominees will be evaluated using the following criteria:

- Evidence of program effectiveness and track record of organizational accomplishments.
- Innovation and vigor in meeting community health needs.
- Capacity to successfully engage many others in building a healthy community.
- A commitment to improving the lives of people whose life circumstances make them vulnerable to poor health.
- Use of innovative approaches that inspire nonprofit employees to engage in wellness activities through the workplace.

Business of the Year – honors a business, corporation, for-profit firm or association that demonstrates an outstanding commitment to advancing the health and wellness of our region. Nominees will be evaluated using the following criteria:

- Direct investment of time and resources in advancing the health and wellness of our region.
- Demonstrated leadership in building community support for health services, programs or strategies.
- Support of nonprofit organizations benefiting the health of vulnerable community members.
- Use of innovative approaches that inspire employees to engage in wellness activities through the workplace. Demonstrated track record of workplace wellness investments.

Collaboration of the Year – honors a group or network of partners, whose combined efforts leverage diverse perspectives, resources and opportunities to improve community health. This shared award recognizes collective work. Nominees will be evaluated using the following criteria:

- Evidence of coalition, task force or initiative impact in supporting community health.
- Evidence of shared leadership and collective contributions.
- Innovative approach that combines resources to more effectively address unmet community needs.
- Capacity to encourage and motivate others to establish health as a shared priority, toward making our communities among the healthiest in the nation.

Youth or Youth Group of the Year – honors a young person or group of young people, under the age of 21, who has made a positive difference by supporting the health and wellness of others in the community. Nominees will be evaluated using the following criteria:

- Personal investment of time and leadership in supporting community health.
- Demonstrated health advocacy through service, volunteering and/or fundraising.
- Capacity to encourage and motivate others to engage in health strategies or activities.

Champions for Better Health NOMINATION FORM

Deadline: Wednesday April 1, 2020

Date of Event: Wednesday, May 27, 2020 (5-7 pm)

Nomination Categories (Please check one)

Nominees may only be nominated in one category

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Volunteer of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> Nonprofit of the Year |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Professional of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> Business of the Year |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Philanthropist of the Year | <input type="checkbox"/> Collaboration of the Year |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> Youth or Youth Group |

Name of Nominee: _____ Title: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Nominator's Name: _____ Title: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Complete section below or attach additional pages if more space is needed

Summary of Major Contributions

How have this organization's or individual's accomplishments been outstanding in advancing the health of our community?

As a result, how has our community and the population served benefited in the areas of: 1) equitable access to health services 2) strengthening health capacities and/or; 3) building healthy communities?

OPTIONAL - Please use section below only if you feel additional support is necessary.

Letter of Recommendation

Please submit a letter of recommendation with this application and email directly to Heather Swartz at Heather@ForBetterHealthPA.org.

Photo

Attach a photo of the individual and/or their organization's work in the community.

References

Please share contact information for one reference who can speak to the nominee's accomplishments.

Reference Name: _____

Relationship to the Nominee: _____

Phone: _____

Email address: _____

Applications are due by Wednesday, April 1, 2020.

Please email, mail or fax your completed nomination form to:

Heather Swartz
Communications Director
Partnership for Better Health
274 Wilson Street
Carlisle, PA 17013
Heather@ForBetterHealthPA.org
Fax to 717-960-9992